

Did you work for Assiette, LLC d/b/a Tardif's American Brasserie?

Does This Affect Me?

If you worked for Assiette, LLC, d/b/a Tardif's American Brasserie ("Assiette") within the last two years as a server, bartender, or a similar position and were paid tips, then this may affect you.

What's This About?

Two former Assiette servers claim that Assiette improperly paid them for their work and took portions of their tips. The lawsuit is seeking money to pay these workers for the wrongfully taken tips and for minimum wage for the hours they worked in the past 2 years. This Notice tells you how you may join the case if you so choose.

At this time, the Court has not decided if Assiette violated federal law. Assiette says it did nothing wrong. There is no money available now and no guarantee that there will be any money in the future.

You have a choice to assert your legal rights in this case. If you do not do so, you will not share in any money awarded in the case.

What Can I Get?

If the workers win, you may get up to two times the unpaid wages and tips you should have gotten.

If the workers lose, you will get nothing.

If you join the lawsuit, you will not have to pay your lawyers out of your pocket, win or lose. The lawyers for the workers are being paid on a contingency fee basis and will receive a part of the money if money is recovered.

Can I be Retaliated Against?

No. It is illegal for Assiette to fire or demote you or otherwise treat you differently just because you joined this suit.
